TO THE CLASS OF 1940

I am glad to be among the first to have an opportunity to extend you greetings. I can assure you my good wishes and congratulations come from my heart.

It is hard for me to realize that another school year has slipped by and that the employees of this school are again faced with the fact that they have done what they could to help prepare another fine group of young people for the future and the bigger problems of life.

There is so little I can say that is really new, yet so much that I would like to say to encourage you to always do your best that I hardly know where to begin.

I have watched your class develop from the time you were first initiated into the "mysteries" of the Chilocco Agricultural School customs, rules, etc. Those days may seem to be long since past but I expect they are by no means forgotten. Let me say you have come a long way in my estimation since those first days at Chilocco in the fall of 1936-37. You have gained much knowledge and wisdom, but, above all, most of you have caught the Chilocco spirit to really do something worthwhile. Let me say to you as my parting advice, to never lose sight of these good intentions and spirit to do the best you can.

Please always remember that there is an unlimited amount of pleasure and satisfaction in proving yourself and living up to what your teachers and loved ones expect of you.

L. E. CORRELL, Superintendent

MRS. CLAUDE HAYMAN, Teacher

Dedication

Mrs. Claude Hayman, as a teacher of Indian Youth has shown understanding and sympathy in their training that will long be remembered as an inspiration in facing the day to day problems when they are no longer high school students. In recognition and appreciation of this quality of foresight and of friendly and sincere encouragement offered to all students alike, the Seniors affectionately dedicate to her this 1940 Chiloccoan.

CHILOCCOAN

CAMPUS BUILDINGS

HISTORY OF CHILOCCO

IN 1882, A small notice appeared in the eastern papers to the effect that Congress had made appropriations for three Indian schools: one to be located at Lawrence, Kansas, known as Haskell Institute; one at Genoa, Nebraska; and the third on the banks of Chilocco Creek, to be known as the Chilocco Indian Agricultural School.

Major James M. Haworth of Olathe, Kansas, was the Superintendent of Indian Education at that time. He and his wife planned the one large building which made its appearance on the lone prairie in 1883. The building was constructed of limestone quarried on the Chilocco reservation, and was fondly termed "Major Haworth's Pet." It opened its doors January 20, 1884, to approximately one hundred children from the reservations to the south.

The first superintendent was Mr. Jasper M. Hadley, a Quaker gentleman, who had worked among the Indians for many years and had their confidence and respect. He was followed by Dr. Henry J. Minthorn, uncle and foster father of Herbert Hoover.

As the years went by, superintendents came and went, and with each change came progress—each added his bit for the good of Chilocco. Dr. Minthorn was succeeded by Benjamin S. Coppock; then came Benjamin Taylor, C. W. Goodman, S. M. McCowan, J. R. Wise, Edgar A. Allen, Oscar H. Lipps (Supervisor in Charge), Clyde M. Blair, and the present superintendent, Lawrence E. Correll. The reservation which started with 1,119.06 acres of land bordering the Kansas State line, was increased by the generosity of the Cherokees who deeded a portion of their Outlet to the United States government so that the Chilocco acreage might be brought up to 8,640. Immediately, the President issued an order setting it aside for that purpose.

With the procession of superintendents came other changes. In 1894, ten years after the establishment of the school, the first graduating class received their diplomas, having completed the work offered by the school at that time. Six boys and nine girls were in the class. With the changing educational methods, the school became graded. Then two years of high school were offered in addition to the eight grades. Finally, in 1927, the entire twelve grades were included. The school became accredited under the Oklahoma State School law in 1932.

New building made their appearance as time went by: the first building had served not only as the home for boys, girls and employees, but also as kitchen, dining-room, hospital, classrooms and employees' club. This building still stands, though greatly changed, and is known as Home Two, housing the smaller boys. Home Three was erected in 1893; it sheltered the larger boys until 1923, when the smaller girls were moved into it. In 1899, Home One was completed. It had then only ten rooms, and was occupied by small boys. In 1903, 1909, and 1923, additions were made to it, until now it houses about one hundred and fifty boys. At one time it was used for both boys and girls.

Home Four was built in 1903, for girls. It stood thirty years, but burned in March, 1933. It was rebuilt in more modern style, as nearly fireproof as possible, and is now the home of the tenth grade girls. Home Five, occupied by the junior and senior girls, was erected in 1931; Home Six, for junior and senior boys, in 1932.

Other buildings have been added until Chilocco has grown from the one stone building set up on the desolate prairie, into one of the largest schools for Indians.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

CLASS OF 1940

Kern Jones	President
James Luther	Vice President
Betty Lee Hogner	Secretary
John Grayson	Sergeant-at-arms
Class Flower	White Carnation
Class Colors	Royal Blue and Gold
Class Motto	"Success is the reward of labor"
Sponsors	Mrs. Emma T. Antone, Miss Mabel Walker

SENIORS OF '40 look back on their four years at Chilocco to find in their freshman year the class elected Ellis Franklin for president. The class history for the next two years finds Sam Morris assuming the duties of the president during both the sophomore and junior years.

Athletic honors are always well distributed in any senior class, so it seems, and this time the senior girls boast that they were the basket ball champions in their freshman year, and again in their junior year, but in the senior year they shifted honors in basket ball to another class but were champions of the intramural volley bal tournament. For honors won by the senior boys we refer you to the althletic honors and awards listed elsewhere in this book.

The most looked forward to of the social occasions on the school calendar for any Junior Class is the annual Junior-Senior Prom, for this social calls forth the prom king and queen, which for the Class of '40 was Lorene Canafax and Kern Jones.

Other boys and girls who have represented the Seniors in their own special way were Betty Lee Hogner as Miss Chilocco for the annual Arkallalah festival held in Arkansas City, Kansas; Ramona Jenkins, Lorene Canafax, Hollis Asenap, and Kern Jones were selected as Chilocco's representatives at the conference of Future Home Makers held at Chilocco in February 1940 as a part of the Agriculture Conference.

As the years pass and classes come and go, boys and girls come to Chilocco whose parents were also students in the years past and in the Class of '40 there are thirteen seniors whose mother or father or both were former Chilocco students. In this group are Richenda Davis, mother of Joseph and Susie Eades; Grant Leno, father of Marilyn Leno; Rose S. Skakah, mother of Viola Miles; Sylvia Gibson, mother of Beulah Pope; John Stephenson, father of Maxine Stephenson; Emma Cecelia Hill, mother of Joyce Thompson; Fannie Harjo, mother of Webster Alford; Esther Hubbard, Mother of James Luther; Frank Grant and Fannie Moore, parents of Celeste Grant; Lucinda Harjochee, mother of Wallace Fixico; Edna Wilson and Vidal Zunigha, parents of Freeman Zunigha; Clara Falls, mother of Sam Morris.

FARM SCENES AND AGGIE BOYS AT WORK

SENIOR CLASS WHO'S WHO—Girls

Sadie Adair: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Y. W. C. A., Group Leader. "You will find the amplest recompense in work done fairly and in unwasted days" is Sadie's belief.

Margaret Anderson: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Arts and Crafts Club, President of Literatae Book Club, Arts and Crafts Club, Choir, Girls' Chorus. Margaret is the serious little senior who tilts her head and says seriously, "To me my friends mean everything."

Beth Asenap: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Homemakers Club, Indian Dramatics Club. Have you ever heard Beth ask, "Is silence so golden?" Her classmates have.

Della Mae Bear: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Y. W. C. A. Della's motto seems to be "Silence does not indicate a lack of wisdom," which has helped her to achieve a quiet and enviable disposition.

Nina Bearhead: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Y. W. C. A., Arts and Crafts Club. Shh! Nina's greatest weakness is a fondness for the movies, but her ambition is to be a stenographer.

Evelyn Bevenue: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Y. W. C. A., Pep Squad, Choir, Group Leader. Evelyn is that senior "who floats through the air with the greatest of ease," with her dancing feet.

Margaret Blanton: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Literatae Book Club, Pep Squad, Honor Roll two years. Well poised Blanton is the girl who has a beaming eye—but no one knows for whom it beameth.

Henrietta Brown: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Y. W. C. A., Yukpa Chuka Ikbi. "Henry has talent as a musician, but we'll be up to see her some time" when she becomes the beautician that she wants to be.

Malsie Brown: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. President of Arts and Crafts Club, Literatae Book Club, Girls' Chorus. Malsie is another of those tiny persons who approaches like the dawn and disappears like a shadow.

Rosa Lee Byars: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Vice President of Arts and Craft Club, Pep Squad, Literate Book Club, Catholic Choir. Better known as "Sweeney" she is a star athlete, and will soon be well informed if she continues with her favorite expression "What's That?"

Lorene Canafax: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. President of, Choir, President of Girls' Council, Student Council, Girls' Chorus, Pep Squad, Y. W. C. A., Homemakers Club, Group Leader, Junior Prom Queen, Honor Roll three years. Lorene will be remembered for her sweet voice, her friendly manner, and her generous contribution of time and effort to make the Student Council a representative group.

Marie Cecil: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Literatae Book Club. Marie advises that one should look at trouble through the wrong end of the telescope.

Georgia Cheadle: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Her hair may be red, but you can't say that her temper is.

Rachel Christie: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Student Council, Group Leader. "Major" Christie and her Home Five "children" reminds us that she expects soon to be teaching in her little country school by the side of the road.

Nora Chupco: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Beneath her calm exterior there's an awful lot of pep, eh "Sparky!"

Rachel Chupco: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Rachel's friendly ways have brought her many friends but if you don't listen hard enough you'll never know that she's near.

Florence Cornelius: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Homemakers Club. Florence is a dignified senior who believes that there is only one way to do a thing and that is the right way.

Eliza Crapo: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Vice President of Homemakers Club, Y. W. C. A. She hopes to be a genuine homemaker, and says "The more I accomplish the more I want to accomplish."

Freida Crisp: One and one-half years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Though Frieda has been with her classmates only a brief time it can be said of her, that her friendship is as good as gold in anyone's purse.

Susie Eades: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Orchestra and Band, Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Group Leader. Susie's one weakness is her beautiful hands, but she has a "high" ambition to be an air hostess.

Marguerite English: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. "Bashful June" has never been a joiner of clubs, believing that Progressive Education and her ardent love for boxing matches are enough for her success.

Stella Foster: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Group Leader. Loyalty to the school and pride in doing her work well are two qualities to be admired in Stella.

Alvina Foster: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. "Tiny" as she is known has as her motto, "Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you." It works too.

Celeste Grant: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Celeste is not an athlete herself, but is known to be very interested in athletic heroes. Why?

Moselle Green: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. YukpaChuka Ikbi, Group Leader, Honor Roll, Winner of Posture Contest for two years, Y.W.C.A., Choir. Moselle is a skillful worker with Indian arts and crafts. Perhaps she will have her own shop some day.

Ruby Mae Harrison: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. President of Homemakers Club, Y. W. C. A., Pep Squad, Honor Roll. Ruby is one of those book-worms, and has ambitions to be a library worker some day.

Lorene Harrison: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Honor Roll. "Bingo" has a sense of humor that keeps you guessing what she's going to do next.

Ruth Hickman: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y.W.C.A., Museum Club. Ruth is tiny, but mighty like dynamite—when given a jolt she goes off in unexpected places.

Kathleen Hogan: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics, Exploration Club. "Short and happy; full of mischief and full of fun; quick to act and quick to talk; That's "Kat".

Betty Lee Hogner: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Homemakers Club, Literatae Book Club, Secretary of Senior Class, Pep Squad, Honor Roll, and Miss Chilocco at the 1939 Arkallalah. Betty has ambition and pep enough that she can succeed in that college course she expects to take.

Rosie Mae Howard: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Homemakers Club, Pep Squad. "The hand is quicker than the eye," may be Rosie Mae's motto for she has proved it as a basket ball player.

Ramona Jenkins: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Student Council, Honor Roll, Museum Club, Group Leader. Ramona believes that, "Luck is doing one's work a little better than the rest do theirs."

Lucille Jones: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Literatae Book Club. Lucille has been heard to murmur, "It isn't the fact that I pass that counts but how I do it."

Marilyn Leno: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Literature Book Club, Group Leader, Homemakers Club, Honor Roll. Commercial art is Marilyn's goal some day, but it has been suggested that her love of sleep might qualify her for advertising Beauty Rest mattresses.

Thelma Lewis: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Homemakers Club. Another senior who could not be accused of being a jitter-bug, but whose movements have meaning and grace.

Viola Miles: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Honor Roll. Viola believes that, "He who talks much, talks in vain."

Ruth Ann Morgan: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Honor Roll 1940. Ruth says, "Every book is a gate to life," so she has opened many gates in her love of reading.

Hazel Morris: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Homemakers Club, Literatae Book Club. Hazel is a friendly senior whose smile is her passport and her laughter a key to all doors.

Nellie Muskrat: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. Nellie knows that "Patience and courage are two of luck's clover leaves".

Geraldine Parker: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Homemakers Club. "Gerry's" greatest weakness is her fondness for dancing, but in the years to come we may see her rendering service as a nurse.

Pauline Pittman: Three and one half years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Literatae Book Club. Pauline, "A lover of idle hours, and a breaker of ordered bounds", but we love her still—the stiller the better.

Beulah Pope: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Group Leader, Pep Squad. "To win a smile from fortune, wink at trouble" is Beulah's motto.

Mary Ratliff: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Yukpa Chuka Ikbi. Mary knows that a person is wise, "When he speaks his mind and minds his speech".

Wynona Riddle: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Group Leader, Honor Roll two years. Knitting, and listening to good music are two of Wynona's hobbies, but her ambition soars to a home of her own.

Catherine Robinson: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Group Leader. "Cat" thinks that the way to a mans heart is through his stomach, and has spent her time in becoming an expert in cooking good things to eat.

Naomi Sampson: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Arts and Crafts Club, Literatae Book Club. Naomi believes that actions speak louder than words, and hence is always busy doing things .

Maxine Stephenson: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Homemakers Club, Literatae Book Club, Honor Roll. Maxine's secret ambition is to be a famous dressmaker for Jones-Stephenson Company. A few years hence and maybe she will be this famous person.

Genevieve Stirling: Two and one half years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Arts and Crafts Club. Genevieve shows her wisdom by her quietness but knows how to break the silence with her friends.

Eva Thompson: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Literatae Book Club. Eva has not yet ceased wondering why the school bell always rings just before she gets inside the school building. Just take your time, Eva.

Christeane Thompson: Two years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A. "Angels are perfect, but I am not an angel," was the remark made by Christeane.

Joyce Thompson: Five years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y. W. C. A., Arts and Crafts Club. "Joy" shows her belief that still water runs deep and that a great deal of thinking can be done without talking.

Lavina Wahwassuck: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Lavina says that she wants to be a teacher. Maybe she means to teach music since she continually sings "Oh Johnny".

Helen Wahweah: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Reporter for Homemakers Club, Literatae Book Club. Believe it or not Helen's greatest weakness is a liking for hamburgers. She looks forward to being a nurse some day.

Lucille Welch: Four years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y.W.C.A., Pep Squad, Choir, Reporter for Yukpa Chuka Ikbi, Honor roll three years, A "gloom chaser" is Lucille because she loves to talk and always finds someone to listen.

Josephine Wildcat: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Homemakers Club, President Museum Club, Group Leader, Honor Roll three years. Josephine believes that it is a good thing to be rich, but that it is a better thing to be loved by many friends.

Mabel Williams: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Secretary Arts and Crafts Club, Literatae Book Club. Mabel is a skilled worker in arts and crafts. We believe that she has a reputation for good judgement and wise decisions.

Peggy Wolfe: Three years at Chilocco. Home Economics. Y.W.C.A., Arts and Crafts Club. Just to show that you can't always tell what a person is like, Peggy is one of those quiet girls who can lose her subdued manner and be as jolly and gay as the next one.

SENIOR CLASS WHO'S WHO—Boys

Webster Alford: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club, National Guard, Indian Dramatics Club, Fire Company, Varsity Basket Ball and Baseball, Letter Club. "Web" is a boy who sighs and sings, but he's slightly timid around pretty things.

Robert Anderson: Four years at Chilocco. Printer. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra. Robert works with words as a printer and perhaps that is why he says, "Blessed are these who say little for they cannot be quoted."

Hollis Asenap: Four years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, National Guard. Hollis says his ambition is to be a general but looking forward twenty years may find him struggling along as a sergeant.

William Biggs: Four years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, National Guard. Biggs says, "If you don't succeed the first time, keep trying until you do."

Fred Blythe: One year at Chilocco. Agriculture. Aggie Club. This North Carolina Cherokee is interested in becoming an expert in raising swine, but really prefers forestry only these prairie farms don't have forests.

Pat Buffalohead: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club, National Guard, Varsity Basket Ball and Baseball, Letter Club, Group Leader. One guess as to Pat's hobby—basketball.

Ernest Childers: Four years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, National Guard, Hi-Y, Band and Orchestra, Honorary Member of Student Council. This tall lanky boy undertakes big things, and gives his friends reason to believe that he is a good worker.

Clarence Cloud: Four years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club. Clarence really is in the clouds with his six feet of height that makes him tower above the earth.

Ben Coffey: Six years at Chilocco. Horticulture. Aggie Club. Ben is one of those persistent farmers who believe that a good motto for all time is "If at first you don't succeed, keep trying until you do."

Joseph Colbert: Five years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club. Joe has specialized in farming and if we should prophesy his future we would guess that he will have his own farm stocked with good livestock, and advise the other farmers how to farm.

William Billy: Ten years at Chilocco. Special Agriculture. Aggie Club, National Guard. This Choctaw from Mississippi hopes to be able to prove his skill as a farmer some day.

Raymond Coleman: Two and one-half years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, Orchestra, Pep Squad, Choir, Group Leader, Honor Roll two years. Coleman's ambition is to be a good mechanic, but his weakness is eating, so that in years to come you may find him running a filling station and cafe.

Thurman Deere: Three years at Chilocco. Farm Mechanics. Trades Club, Orchestra. Thurman's motto is "Anyone who can read notes can play a cornet—if he knows how."

Joseph Eades: Two years at Chilocco. Printer. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra. Joe is the youngest senior in the Class of '40 but that doesn't affect his skill at the linotype or his cornet playing.

Gene Eldridge: Two years at Chilocco. Plumber. Trades Club, National Guard, Varsity Boxing Team, Group Leader. Here's a boxer who has a secret longing to be a mathematics teacher, maybe.

Noah Falling: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club. Noah is one of those friendly bakers—if you find some one who doesn't know him just say that person hasn't been at Chilocco long.

Emile Farve: Four years at Chilocco. Dairy. Aggie Club. Emile is satisfied to be a good dairyman and is said to have ideas about a dairy of his own.

Wallace Fixico: Two years at Chilocco. Shoe and Harness Repair. Trades Club, Varsity Basket Ball. Letter Club. In spite of a trip to the New York World's Fair as one of the Indian Guides, Fixico is still one of those modest fellows.

Ellis Franklin: Four years at Chilocco. Dairy. Hi-Y, Aggie Club, Honor Roll one year. Ellis is another of those dairymen, so wrapped up in his vocation that twenty years from now you can expect him to be the owner of a successful dairy herd.

Earl Gill: Four and one-half years at Chilocco. Printer. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra. A second "Benny Goodman," who is known for those mellow tones he coaxes from the clarinet.

Velton Gray: One year at Chilocco. Printer. Trades Club. In one short year with the Class of '40 Velton has entered into the school spirit just as an "old timer," and has made a place for himself as a printer to be depended on, as well as a friend among his classmates.

John Grayson: Four years at Chilocco. Agriculture. Secretary of Aggie Club, Varsity Basketball and Baseball, Letter Club. John is good at hurling that baseball—maybe he will belong to some major league yet.

Richard Griffin: Three years at Chilocco. Barber and Cleaning and Pressing. Hi-Y, Band and Orchestra, National Guard, Honor Roll three years. Richard has heard so much about a certain girl and Griffin's Shoe Polish maybe he will have a shoe store instead of a barber shop.

James Hays: One year at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, National Guard, Choir, Pep Squad, Group Leader. James is that versatile fellow who says, "There are two sides to every question. I'll take either."

Ramsey Horton: Three years at Chilocco. Agriculture. Hi-Y, National Guard. Another of those fellows that thinks ideas are not ideas until they are put into use, is Ramsey who likes both work and fun.

John Howe: Seven years at Chilocco. Agriculture. Aggie Club, Band and Orchestra, Honor Roll one year. John is almost a veteran at Chilocco though one of the youngest seniors. He claims the distinction of having been the Senior Class Mascot in 1934.

Kern Jones: Three years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. President of Aggie Club, President Senior Class, Vice President Student Council, Museum Club, Hi-Y, Pep Squad, Honor Roll three years. "Lefty" Jones is known for his friendly laugh and all his experience as a president should start him on a career as a politician.

Gilbert Kent: Five and one-half years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, National Guard, Indian Dramatics Club, Varsity Boxing Team, Winner of State A. A. U. District Champion in 1939. Letter Club. No doubt about it, boxing is Kent's first interest for "they hit him on the chin and he takes it with a grin."

Haskell Knight: Four years at Chilocco. Printer. National Guard, Trades Club. Haskell says that a printer is an artist as well as master of all trades so that gives him reason to expect to be a tennis star.

Buddy Love: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra. Buddy says that a good motto for some folks is "Think twice before you speak and then say nothing."

James Luther: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club, Vice President of Senior Class, Group Leader. Honor Roll four years. James is a real doughboy in his trade and one of those bookworms who reads and reads and knows of what he speaks.

Perry Martin: Four years at Chilocco. Electrician. Trades Club, Hi-Y, Band and Orchestra, National Guard. Perry and his trumpet are good gloom chasers. Maybe that's why he is such an expert electrician.

John Masquat: Three years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club. Look out girls! "Oh Johnny" isn't as bashful as he seems.

Atha Meigs: Four years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club. Is it true that Atha has been heard to say, "If we had some butter and salt we could have some parched corn."

Thomas Miller: Five years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, President of Band and Orchestra. Miller has acquired quite a reputation for the orchestra he calls "Miller and Company." Maybe he is going to furnish music for his cows and horses too when he starts his farm.

Joe Mombi: Three years at Chilocco. Printer. Student Council, Trades Club, Group Leader, Vice President Choir. Joe says that until women rule the world there will be printing.

Sam Morris: Three and one-half years at Chilocco. Printer. President Student Council, President Hi-Y, Group Leader, Honor Roll one year. Sam can always be smiling for no apparent reason, but we suspect he thinks "she" sees him. We expect to hear more about Sam with his interest in Oklahoma Baptist University.

Homer Patterson: Four years at Chilocco. Agriculture. Aggie Club, Band and Orchestra, National Guard. You have heard that still water runs deep. Homer is a good example of the adage with his ability to keep himself well informed and to share his information.

Raymond Reeve: Three years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, Reporter Hi-Y, National Guard. Raymond may be one of those former politicians. "Sir" some one said to Raymond, "I am a Republican" to which he replied, "I am too, but my profession is against it."

Elgin Red Elk: Three years at Chilocco. Agriculture. Aggie Club. You may expect Red Elk to become one of those model farmers, even though he is accused of "keeping what he knows locked in his head."

Duff Reynolds: Four years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, Group Leader, Honor Roll two years. Duff is that friendly chap who though not exactly a Casanova, has as many friends as the next one.

D. C. Richison: Four years at Chilocco. Baker, Trades Club, Group Leader, National Guard. Romeo! Romeo! Where art thou?—In the kitchen.

Thomas Scott: Five years at Chilocco. Barber and Cleaning and Pressing. Trades Club. Though Scott is a barber by trade, he knows every trick in school. He specializes in cue ball hair cuts.

Alvin Shemayne: Four years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, Captain Varsity Basketball, Letter Club, Baseball. Shemayne crashed the pictures for the annual, but he says "Girls are nice, but that's sissy stuff."

Lee Simmerson: Three years at Chilocco. Meat Shop. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra, Pep Squad. Lee's secret longing is to be an orchestra leader but we may find him the best trombone player for Bob Wills.

Gerald Snead: Three years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, Band and Orchestra, National Guard. Honor Roll one year. Though Gerald has been called "Tyrone" a few times, he still likes American History especially Grant's administration.

Henry Thompson: Four years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, Varsity Baseball, Choir. This singing mechanic may be expected to draw all the customers when he sings while he services the cars.

James Thornton: Four years at Chilocco. Dairy. Aggie Club. As a side line to his dairy herd James has been heard planning to open a business dealing in "Stirling" silver.

Hiawatha Tuggle: Four years at Chilocco. Auto Mechanics. Trades Club, National Guard, Honor Roll two years. Tuggle takes things slow and easy. He says that's how the tortoise won the race with the hare.

Connie Vann: Four years at Chilocco. Baker and Cook. Trades Club, Pep Squad, Honor Roll three years. His ambition is to be a dietitian, but he says that twenty years from now he may be a cook instead.

Malcom Webb: Two years at Chilocco. Horticulture. Aggie Club, Hi-Y. For a mere two years of training Malcom knows a lot about horticulture. Just ask him about your orchard and garden problems.

Stanley Whiteshirt: Four years at Chilocco. Baker. Trades Club, Indian Dramatics Club, Varsity Boxing Team, Letter Club. Stanley is one of those talkative Indians, who usually has something worth talking about, but he knows when to make actions speak louder than words as a boxer.

Thomas Whitewater: Five years at Chilocco. General Mechanics. Trades Club, Varsity Boxing Team, Letter Club, National Guard, Honor Roll two years. Maybe Thomas will be that traffic cop who stops you to say "You are exceeding the speed limit."

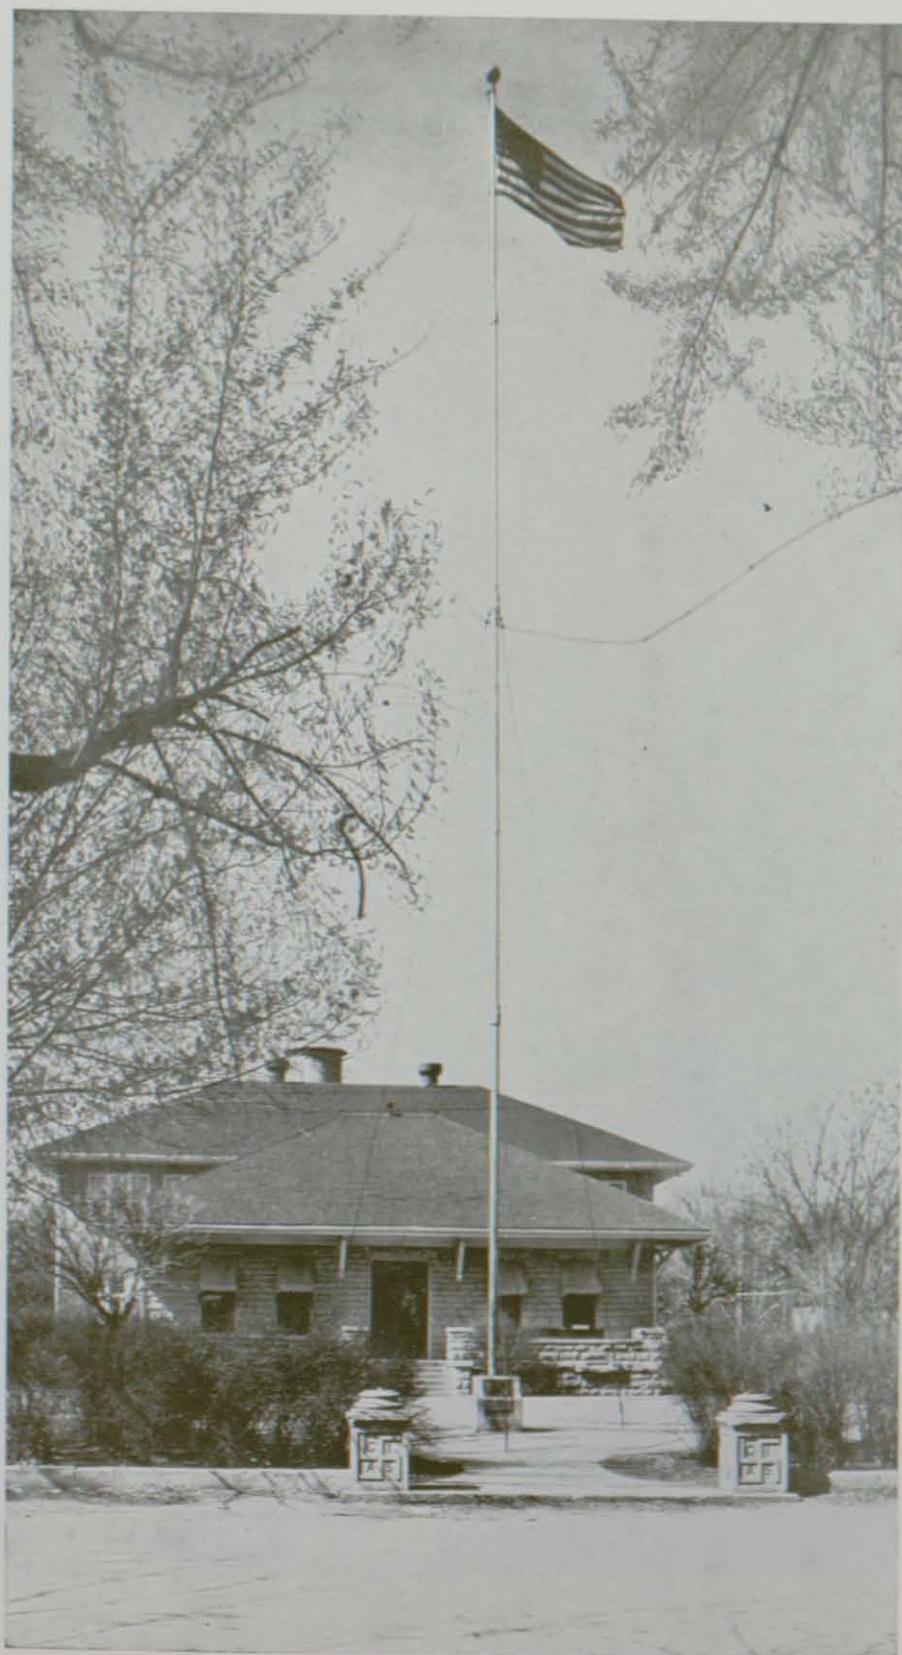

Isaiah Williams: Four years at Chilocco. Diversified Farming. Aggie Club, Hi-Y, Band and Orchestra, Varsity Boxing Team, Letter Club. Four years has made "Ike" a boxing star. His letter was earned for two years of boxing, a championship for the invitation tournament in Arkansas City, Kansas, in 1938, and champion of the Enid Golden Gloves in 1940.

Freeman Zunigha: Three years at Chilocco. Printer. Trades Club. Just ask Freeman anything you want to know about baseball which is his hobby. He started his hobby by being team mascot in the days when his father was employed at Chilocco, where by the way Freeman was born so he is a Chiloccoan both by birth and residence.

CHILOCCO

School Song

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Where the prairies never end.
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
You are still our famous friend.
School of Schools you are the best.
You're the school that stands the test.
You're the school that brings us fame.
Ever we'll revere thy name.

CHORUS

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco; We love our campus grand.
We love your lawns and shady walks
Where graceful maples stand.
We love your sunsets and the stars at night
Reflected in the lake so bright.
We love the cardinal's cherry call,
And the bright red maples in the fall.

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Where your old stone buildings stand
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
Ivy covered they are grand.
They are monuments of hope
As we on learning's ladder grope.
School that makes our dreams come true,
We are ever loyal to you.

Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
When the morning bugle calls,
Oh Chilocco; Oh Chilocco;
We are glad to fill your halls.
We come here that we may learn,
Life's great secrets to discern.
Teach us how to work and play,
Bring us something new each day.

STUDENT COUNCIL '39 - '40

THE CHILOCCO STUDENT COUNCIL

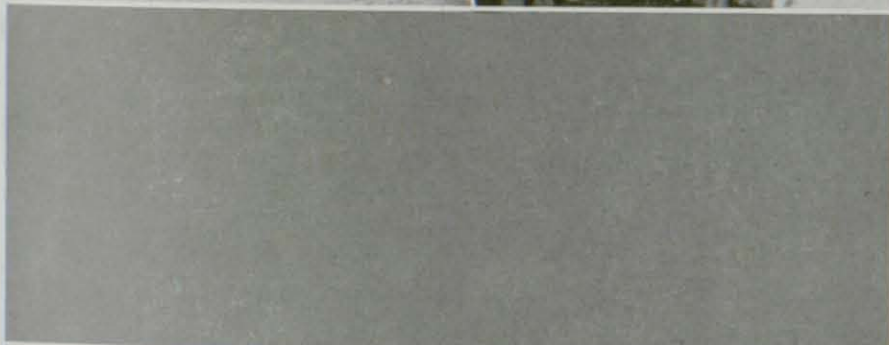

The members of the Student Council as shown in the picture are from left to right—first row—Ramona Jenkins, secretary; DeRoin Peak, Arthur Rhea, Sam Morris, president; Cora Belle Griffin. Second row—Lorene Canafax, reporter; Rachel Christie, Vergie Warren, Luther McGlashin, Sue Ann Kilpatrick, Katherine Helton. Third row—Robert Billings, Ette Mae Coleman, Richmond Fillmore, Juanita Kennedy, Kern Jones, vice-president; Joe Mambi. Iman Starr, not included in the picture, but is a member of the Council.

WHEN THE military system of school discipline was disbanded in 1930 attempts were made to find a way by which the student body might have a voice in school issues involving student government. In 1931 student group meetings were begun, and by 1936 the advisers and student groups had established first a boys' council and then a girls' council, meeting separately, but later holding joint meetings. Since 1936 the Student Council has consisted of nine boy and nine girl members who are elected to represent the agriculture, trades, home economics, academic and advisory branches of Chilocco. Meetings are held twice each month. The Council aims to develop higher standards of living and ideals, to provide finer social contacts, and to promote student leadership and responsibility.

CHILOCCO ATHLETIC TEAMS AND SPORTS

CHILOCCO has for several years been noted for her boxing teams, who are in turn noted for their fine sportsmanship. The members of the 1939-1940 team have won the Missouri Valley A. A. U. team trophy with winners in four of the weight classes, and three runners-up. At the Enid Golden Gloves Tournament held annually, Chilocco took three championships and the team trophy. When the Oklahoma City annual Golden Gloves Tournament was held Chilocco came out with one champion, a member of the junior class, who entered the tournament at Chicago.

The basketball team of 1939-1940 broke about even on losses and wins, but remains the second most popular sport among the student body. This team is made up largely of new members though seniors held some of the key positions.

The baseball team is not pictured with the athletic teams but the spring season brings out both seniors and lower classmen who are seeking a place in this popular sport. Closely rivaling the varsity teams in popularity are the intra-mural teams among the sixteen different boys' groups, as well as intra-mural teams among the girls. Popular intra-mural games are baseball, softball, boxing, horse-shoes, and volley. From the boys' class teams come the prospective members for the varsity teams.

The Chilocco Lettermen's Club is made up of the varsity team members who have earned their "C" through participating in one or more of the three varsity teams. Senior lettermen for 1939-1940 are Webster Alford, baseball two years, basketball one year; Alvin Shemayme, 1940 basketball captain and team member three years, baseball three years; John Grayson, baseball two years, basketball one year; Pat Buffalohead, basketball one year; Charles Jones, boxing two years; Thomas Whitewater, boxing one year; Gilbert Kent, boxing four years; Isaiah Williams boxing two years; Stanley Whiteshirt, boxing one year; Wallace Fixico, basketball two years. Officers of the Lettermen's Club are seniors with Thomas Whitewater as president and John Grayson as vice president.

During the basketball season the main string team playing in most of the games consisted of Wallace Fixico, Pat Buffalohead, John Grayson, Jeff Hogner, Webster Alford and Alvin Shemayme.

Conclusion

The "Chiloccoan" is printed by the Indian printers from the copy prepared by a committee of seniors assisted by their sponsors. The class officers act as an executive committee in selecting one boy and one girl from each section of the class to assist in writing copy, securing pictures, and arranging the contents of the yearbook. The eight assistant members were Lorene Canifax, Naomi Hayton, Ruby Mae Harrison, Celeste Grant, Freeman Zunigha, Sam Morris, Raymond Coleman, and Joseph Eades. To members of the Senior Class of 1940 this yearbook will always be a pleasant reminder of days and years spent at Chilocco Agricultural School where they gained much in knowledge and wisdom, and "caught the Chilocco spirit to really do something worthwhile". Nor is the class unmindful of the expense and effort required from the school and faculty to present to each senior a copy of the "Chiloccoan", as a gift from The Chilocco Agricultural School.
